

Chorus: Desirée, Desirée, Desirée frustrated little donkey

She wakens in the morning has her breakfast in her bed
She's very lazy and she's always last to leave the donkey shed
She's ever so, ever so lazy and she's ever so, ever so slow But she's such a pretty little donkey that she wins all the prizes at the donkey show that's

Chorus: Desirée, Desirée, Desirée frustrated little donkey

Why do you think she's lazy, why do you think she's slow?
Here's a conundrum work it out 'cause it's something that you ought to know,
Desirée had a donkey lover, it was a wild and a steamy affair
But he was forcibly taken away, to service another mare - not

Chorus: Desirée, Desirée, Desirée frustrated little donkey

Now what was the farmer thinking, yes it's all about his greed
To build up a stable with a pedigree stud, forgetting her feminine need,
Desirée has strong feelings when she sees him with the other

What's wrong with monogamy, she hates these openly abandoned affairs,

Chorus: Desirée, Desirée, Desirée frustrated little donkey

Now she's heavily pregnant and she clearly needs to rest,
In psychobabble in the human world she'd be clinically depressed
How would you feel if it happened to you - what a weird surprise Seeing your lover having it off in front of your very eyes! Poor

Chorus: Desirée, Desirée, Desirée frustrated little donkey
